PRICE OF CHOICE CUTS REDUCED TO A BIT A POUND-COMPETI-TION AT WORK.

WAILUKU, December 6.-The public are once more benefitted by the meat war that prevails in Walluku. There are three meat markets in the town of Wailuku. Only recently the Maul Meat Market which is being run by Ah Hoy who has been in the meat business for a long time past reduced the price of choice cuts from 15 to 121/2 cents per pound. Circulars were sent out broadcast announcing the change. This was however quickly followed by an ad in the Maui News by the Wailuku market which reads as follows: "Our patrons are notified that we are prepared at all times to furnish meat as good as the best, and at price as low as the lowest." In the meantime the community is reaping the benefit of cheaper beef.
